Whitehouse Wind Symphony Presents Free Outdoor Concert in Clinton

CLINTON, NJ - The Whitehouse Wind Symphony, a community band under the direction of Branchburg resident James P. Sheeley, Jr, will present a free outdoor concert on Friday, July 7, 2023 at 7pm at the Red Mill Museum Village (56 Main Street, Clinton, NJ 08809). This concert is presented in partnership with the Town of Clinton Recreation Commission. The program will feature a range of selections that includes traditional marches, patriotic tunes, classical selections, and a medley of rock 'n' roll songs by Queen!

The band is no stranger to Clinton and the banks of the South Raritan River, having performed in recent years at both the Red Mill Museum Village and the Hunterdon Art Museum terrace. They last appeared at the Red Mill in June of 2022, performing to an appreciative audience. The band is very glad to have this opportunity to perform for live audiences in Clinton again!

The concert is free and open to the general public, although donations will be accepted to benefit the band, a non-profit group comprised entirely of volunteer musicians. Audience members of all ages are encouraged to bring picnic blankets and chairs. In the event of inclement weather or public health emergency, the announcement to postpone or cancel this concert will be made on the band's website (whitehousewindsymphony.org), Facebook page (facebook.com/whitehousewind), and Instagram feed (instagram.com/whitehousewind).

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony was founded by conductor emeritus Casey Bork on April 15, 1996. It is dedicated to presenting the best in all varieties of wind band literature. Since its founding, the band has grown rapidly, attracting experienced musicians as regular members from all over New Jersey, as well as New York City and eastern Pennsylvania. It is now comprised of approximately 50 amateur and professional musicians who perform together regularly to enthusiastic audiences throughout central and northern New Jersey. The band was named the winner of the 2022 Hunterdon Happening List in the category of favorite band/musician!

The Whitehouse Wind Symphony is committed to making music accessible to all. For information about venue accessibility, please send an email to whitehousewindsymphony@gmail.com, or call the band's ADA coordinator, Margaret Smith, at 908-534-6662.

Funding has been made possible in part by the New Jersey State Council on the Arts/Department of State, a Partner Agency of the National Endowment for the Arts, through funds administered by the Hunterdon County Cultural & Heritage Commission.
